DISCIPLESHIP - WHAT IS IT, REALLY?

Basically, a "disciple" is simply a pupil, a student of the Word. In biblical terms, a disciple is a pupil or student of Christ - one who learns from and walks in the footsteps of the Son of God. Thus, "discipleship" is the act of being a disciple, of dying to ones self and living for Christ. Matthew 16:24-25 says, Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake shall find it."

But what does "discipleship" mean from the perspective of the church - what does it look like in measurable terms? That is the more practical question that we need to answer. Here is a definition: Discipleship is Spirit-empowered, biblically-focused growth into the likeness of Christ. There it is. There is much contained in it, so let's break it down one element at a time.

PARSON TO PERSON

A PASSION FOR GOD

Me? I am thankful for you. Your strong support means so much. When I step on someone's toes, you tell me, and we work it out. (I've gotten good at apologizing over the years!) And though the occasional public appreciation makes me feel awkward, I'd be lying if I said it also didn't make me feel great!

From the Pastor

Fourth.

I am grateful for the Doctor of Ministry program at Fuller Theological Seminary, which God has used to prepare me for this Act Two phase of our church's life. I've been with APC nearly from the start—coming up 20 years! Few pastors stay that long in one place. They get bored, or people get bored with them. Or there's some "cause" why they need to move on. No offense meant to them, but I am just "so not there". I have been growing and learning every day. The Fuller program has equipped me with new skills, and God has brought along the right APC leaders, so that every day brings new challenges and greater enthusiasm.

I love God more than ever. I love you more than ever. I love what our future will bring. I love what our past has brought. I am thankful, through and through.

For what are you thankful? Most of us would say, "for our family and friends". In the end, isn't that what matters—relationships? Did you know, it's the same with God? This has come up many times; I've found myself saying frequently over the years, "With God, it's a relationship, not a transaction".

November 22nd is Thanksgiving Day this year. Thanksgiving is a uniquely American holiday. I remember foreign students whom we placed with church families back in Kansas; the students always seemed to be impressed. Some of us have had many Thanksgiving Days come and go. Are we impressed

This month JAY HANSELL, Building and Grounds Ministry Team Leader, asked Cecil to be sure to thank some very wonderful people for their hard work in the Fall church clean-up. We are indebted to KURT SIMON, PASTOR KEN and KEITH DICE for work on our sprinkler and irrigation system, JEAN HINTON for garden weeding, BILL JACKSON for pipe insulation, and JERRY STEARN for tree pruning. Very special thanks also to KURT SIMON and RON MARKHAM for rebuilding our parking lot garden, and to RUSS BEARROWS for his continued dedication to the ongoing maintenance and improvement of our landscaping. Sincere thanks from Jay to all who pitch in with this work throughout the year—you are awesome!

MAY GRACE AND PEACE BE YOURS IN ABUNDANCE.

WOMAN TO WOMAN

by Linda Thompson

RUSHING INTO THE SEASON.... Whew! October was a busy month...three family birthdays, two committee meetings, one retreat, an article for the church newsletter, four skirts for advent, two trips to the doctor, ten visits to market, two treks to re-cycle pine needles and leaves, one mowing strip poured, and 48 miles (or 19,000 calories ) on the elliptical. Who said retirement was for resting?

Now as we move into the Thanksgiving and Christmas season I wonder how many of you are beginning to feel the stress of the holidays...the shopping, baking, decorating and traveling....not to mention the financial strain. Or perhaps you're working hard to put the last minute touches on that afghan you're knitting for your favorite aunt or cute dress you hope to stitch up for your granddaughter.

Now I'm not complaining. I always expect this time of year to be extra busy. Sometimes I get caught up in the old way of doing things 'my way' and that just adds to the chaos, but, as I try to hear God's voice through the din and follow after him he seems to increase the hours and the energy to be about His business. Even so, as Solomon wrote....*There is a time for every purpose under heaven....*and your Women's Connection thinks its time for a break from this holiday rush for some rest and refreshment.....SO, Come join us for.....

GIGGLES AND GAMES....FRIDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 7 ...6:30 - 9:00

Get this date on your calendar now for an evening event of fellowship and fun activities. Come play with us and enjoy dinner and refreshments. De-stress the stressors! Take this moment to step away from the hustle and bustle of the holidays. The cost is FREE and you're guaranteed a good time! You'll meet new friends, connect with the old and be reminded just what the season really is all about. Watch for further information in the Sunday bulletin!

Those of you with Secret Sisters may want to check out Thanksgiving cards. Or...better yet...create one yourself just for fun. It is, after all, the thought that counts.

BEING SALT AND LIGHT...Are you excited about not just being a Christian, but living out the great commission to 'go and make disciples' ...? W.I.S.E.

ministries is hosting a Holiday Heartwarming at Cornerstone Christian Church at 6:30 p.m., the evening of NOVEMBER 30.

It's another fun time for women to get together and celebrate the season, but they have a secondary goal....to present the message of Christmas so that unbelievers might hear. Be praying about those women in your life you would like to reach with the Good News and invite them to come. If you've never attended W.I.S.E, that's okay. All women are welcome. We'll keep you updated about time and cost so watch your Sunday bulletins!

IN THE MEANTIME... I've been counting my blessings. Here are just a few. Why not take a moment to add yours to the list....The family I was born into who loved and nurtured me; my husband, children and grandchildren who support and egg me on; my church which has been faithful to her calling; ; God's creation which renews my spirit every day; my country which is, in spite of her problems, still the best place on earth to uphold the banner of freedom and opportunity; all those who serve in this nation and foreign places to make this world a better place; and finally, each of you and all the friends of my past who have encouraged me when I thought the end of my rope was frayed, directed me when I was scratching my head at the fork in the road and hugged me when I needed it.....For these things and more, I am truly Thankful.

In my relationship with Sharon, I work at showing my thankfulness and appreciation regularly. And I do the same with God. (Maybe that's why I have such love for both of them.) How are you acting on the thankfulness you may feel toward God? Is it a once-a-year thing, prompted by Thanksgiving Day? Is it easier, if you've gone through hard times, to feel gratitude welling up more often?

I know a number of families who have decreased their traditional gift-giving over the coming holidays. One of the things they do instead is to make a donation to a cause that their friend or relative values highly. Love for "Ms. A" gets demonstrated by "investing" with "Cause B".

With the gratefulness you may feel toward God, how will you invest it? You know how God loves people on the bottom of the social pile. Perhaps you could give to The Gathering Inn, as a gift to God. Lots of people give to their local church for this same reason, of course. How about befriending someone who doesn't know God—(and you might have to work at that)? This is a gift of your time, for God, but given to a "cause" God loves.

Please take some time to sit with God well before "the holidays" are upon us. How might you work God into a conversation? How might a gift from you (time, or money—and time is often the more important) draw someone toward the One we love? Perhaps inviting someone to an evening of great jazz with Jim Martinez might be the start of an evening about what really makes you happy, and what's really important. And that, my friend, could lead you to reveal how God has shown up in your life, and how much God is life for you. (John 1:4, 3:16, 3:36 might inspire you.)

May your thankfulness abound, as does mine. (Philippians 1:3-6)

See You in Worship,

Pastor Ken Winter

First, true discipleship requires that one be saved. While unsaved persons may be capable of religious and moral lifestyles that resemble Christianity outwardly, true heart salvation is the only originator of true discipleship. An unregenerate person will not ultimately die to self – indeed, they are incapable of dying to that which drives them. Likewise, they are incapable of living for Christ, for how can one live for the glory of a Lord they do not truly know? Spiritual regeneration and spiritual empowerment are necessities of true discipleship. We must be saved. The Holy Spirit must be present within us, sanctifying us and filling us with God's desires and God's strength.

Second, There is the Pastor and the formal "Elders" of the church – those men who bear responsibility for leading, preaching, teaching, and protecting the flock of God. These men bear a primary responsibility to faithfully proclaim right doctrine and to admonish the congregation in the pursuit of spiritual growth and faithful obedience. They are ultimately responsible for "directing" the church in disciple-making. (2 Timothy 2:2 and chapter 4, Hebrews 13:17) Second, there is the more general sense in which I mean "elder" Christians – people who are mature in the faith and who are mentoring younger believers to help set them on the right path to Christian maturity. This type of Titus 2 ministry is what we need more in the church.

Third, true discipleship is biblically focused. Christian maturity is impossible apart from proper grounding in God's holy Word. Remember 2 Timothy 3:16: All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work. Being steeped in the knowledge and wisdom of the Scriptures is the main pursuit of the disciple and the key to the obedience and fervor that mark maturity. Conversely, ignorance of the Scriptures is the greatest sign of Christian immaturity and reprobate living. Remember what Jesus said in the Great Commission in Matthew 28 – making disciples is a matter of teaching them all that He has commanded; to teach them His Word.

Finally, true discipleship is aimed at growth into the likeness of Christ. Ephesians 5:1-2 says, Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children; and walk in love, just as Christ also loved you, and gave Himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God as a fragrant aroma. 2 Corinthians 3:18 likewise says we are being transformed into the image of the Lord. This is the goal of discipleship – that according to the strength of the Spirit and the truth of the Word, we grow daily into His likeness, thereby becoming living incarnations of our Lord Jesus Christ. (1 Peter 4:11) So now that you know what it is, what will you do to be a part of it?

This is what Pastor Ken, Our Elders and our Ministry Leaders see as Mission One of our Act 2 Vision. This is not a new program or a new ministry. It has been around for over 2,000 years and Jesus wants this for APC.

God love you all, as we grow in the Lord together, Pres Saunders

NEW APC MEMBER

Keith Dice was born in Streeter, Illinois. When he was 8 years old, his family moved to Phoenix, Arizona. As an adult, he moved to Ventura, California, and spent 22 years there prior to coming north to where he lives in Applegate. Keith's wife died fairly recently, after many health challenges.

Keith was in sales most of his working years. After working for several companies, including Farmer Brothers Coffee, he sold detergent and sanitizers commercially to hotels, restaurants, motels, and other such businesses. . It was this company that sent him north to work. They liked it and decided to retire here.

With his two grandchildren in Ventura, it is no wonder that he visits there often. However, he keeps himself busy in Auburn. He volunteers for Seniors First as a free handyman for low income seniors. He does get paid for some of the hours he works, however. He has also worked at the Vision Center in DeWitt Center.

At Auburn Presbyterian Church, Keith has chosen to belong to The Travelers Life Group.

When asked about how he came to invite Jesus Christ into his life, Keith said that he grew up with it. His family belonged to The Lutheran Church. He remembers an incident when he was quite young. After communion was concluded, he started crying inconsolably. When they could finally get him calmed and ask him what the
